

Helping with Spelling.....

Spelling Activity	Description
Spelling Bee	Spell your words out loud to a parent or a partner.
Use it	Use the word correctly in three written sentences and underline the word.
Dictation	One person makes up a sentence with a target word in it and says it out loud. The other person has to write it.
Millionaire	Write a word four times. Only one should be spelt correctly. The others should be incorrect, preferably common mistakes. Choose the correct spelling.
Jackanory	Write the beginning to a story using all of the spelling words in the first paragraph.
Spelling flowers	Draw a big flower. Write your words on petals or leaves.
Newsy words	Use old magazines or newspapers to cut out letters/words and glue into a jotter.
Hangman	Play a traditional game of hangman but only use words from the list.
Inventor!	Make up games or activities to learn spellings. Don't forget to share them.
