

What does a school have to do to achieve the award?

The school demonstrates a commitment to work towards the Leading Parent Partnership Award.

The school produces and implements parents friendly policies to establish effective home /school links and improve pupil attendance, punctuality, behaviour and progress in school.

The school evaluates performance against the Leading Partnership Award.

The school holds and actively promotes enrichment opportunities or events for joint parent/child participation.

The school provides good induction for all new parents.

The school is a welcoming and friendly place for parents.

The school provides parents with relevant and user-friendly guidance and information to help them support their child's learning.

The school makes and implements effective plans to achieve and maintain the Leading Parent Partnership Award.

The school promotes an awareness of and participation in lifelong learning opportunities available in school and in the community to all groups of parents.

The school provides good support for transition for parents when their children leave the school.

What can families do?

- ✓ Read all newsletters and letters sent home.
- ✓ Support you child with their homework.
- ✓ Take note of your child's targets in their mentoring report and help them work towards it.
- ✓ Register with the schools website and check it regularly.
- ✓ Come to events we organise if you are able.
- ✓ Complete questionnaires we send out as honestly as you can.

My mam helps in our classroom.

I like it when my dad helps me with my homework

If I am stuck on my work my nana helps me. She doesn't always know what to do, so I tell her!

Leading Parent Partnership Award (LPPA)

At Silver Tree Primary School we are working towards achieving this award.

We are committed to working with parents to increase confidence and skills. We want to support children in education, and suggesting possible ways to become involved in school.

“Parents and school working together creates the best foundation for our children to make progress.”

Mr J Trueman