

Extended Writing Opportunities

Science

- Explanation text/non-chronological report

Design and technology

- Instructions

History

- Poetry
- Letter

Science

Living things and their habitats:

- To draw diagrams of the life cycles of a mammal, an amphibian, an insect and a bird.
- To make comparisons between life cycles of different animals.
- To explore complete and incomplete metamorphosis.
- To observe animals in their natural habitats.
- To think about how animals adapt to their habitats.
- To explain sexual and asexual reproduction in plants and consider the differences.

Humanities

Focus: History

Local Study: Tommy Armstrong

- To find out how World War 1 began.
- To investigate the impact in the local area – deaths, manufacturing.
- To explore how local children were affected during WW1.
- To look at how local areas were affected by bombings.
- To think about how life has changed in the local area since World War 1.
- To visit a local cenotaph.

Computing

- To carry out research about Tommy Armstrong using search engines.
- To explain how search engines work.
- To evaluate the reliability of digital content and historical sources, including pictures.

Topic:

Our North East Heroes!

Year 5

Term:

Summer 1

Text(s):

Hook

Visit to a cenotaph

PSHCE

RSE - Physical health and Mental wellbeing

- Healthy sleep habits; sun safety; medicines, vaccinations, immunisations and allergies

RSE – Growing and Changing

- Personal identity; recognising individuality and different qualities; mental wellbeing

P.E

- Striking and fielding games

R.E

- How are Jewish beliefs expressed in the home?

French

- To read and learn stories, songs, poems and rhymes

Music

- To listen to North Eastern Folk Songs

Creativity

Focus: Design and Technology

- To follow recipes to prepare dishes that would have been eaten during Tommy Armstrong's period in history.
- To evaluate dishes against a recipe.
- To understand and apply the principles of a healthy and varied diet
- To design, create and evaluate a habitat/bug hotel.